

Showing Forth The Bread Of YHWH's Face
Part 7 Whole Wheat Unleavened Bread
By YHWH's Apostle Rabbi Moshe Y. Koniuchowsky

Beresheeth/Gen. 14:18 And Malki-Tzedek melech of Salem brought out lechem and wine: and he was the kohen of El-Elyon.

What did the bread on earth in the priests' hands represent? Something REAL in heaven. Shem shares this bread with Abraham, next in line in the order of Malki Tzedek.

Shemot/Exodus 16: 4 Then said יהוה to Moshe, See, I will rain lechem from the shamayim for you; and the people shall go out and gather a certain amount every day, that I may test them, whether they will have their halacha in My Torah, or not.
5 And it shall come to pass, that on the sixth day they shall prepare that which they bring in; and it shall be twice as much as they gather daily.

This temporal bread represented the TRUE Whole Wheat Unleavened bread in heaven, not yet poured out, but a prophetic declaration of what YHWH's true eternal intentions were.

Shemot/Exodus 16:

32 And Moshe said, This is the thing which יהוה commands, Fill an omer of it to be kept for your future generations; that they may see the lechem with which I have fed you in the wilderness, when I brought you forth from the land of Mitzrayim.

33 And Moshe said to Aharon, Take a pot, and put an omer full of manna inside, and store it up before יהוה, to be kept for your future generations.

34 As יהוה commanded Moshe, so Aharon stored it before the Testimony, to be kept.

Why did uneatable bread need to be kept? Because it represented the true Bread yet to come for all of mankind's generations.

Shemot/Exodus 25:30

30 And you shall put the Lechem ha Panayim on the shulchan before Me always.

Why? Because the Showbread represented the true Bread in heaven "before YHWH" in eternity past. That's why its is called the Bread of the Faces.

Wayiqra 24:9/Leviticus. 24:7-9 says Aaron and his sons were designated as high priests to eat the showbread in the most Holy Place.

This bread was to be eaten by priests only. Same today. We are all priests of the Renewed Covenant and must make sure we eat the correct whole wheat unleavened bread. The earthly priests knew the bread they were eating represented a Bread that would one day come from the heavens as the High Priest for all men. For Yahshua was a priest after the order of Malki Tzedek (Ivrim/Hebrews. 7:21). So the very showbread that (showing forth the true Bread stored in the heavens) the high priest prepared, they knew by prophetic insight to be the Bread prepared by YHWH that would one day be manifested as the true Bread from heaven, so that all men might eat from it for their salvation.

Divre Hayamaim Alef/First Chronicles 9: 32 And others of their brothers, of the sons of the Kohathites, were in charge of the Lechem ha Panayim, to prepare it every Shabbat.

Because the true Bread Yahshua is our Shabbat rest (Ivrim/Hebrews 4:19) and had to be prepared to enter the world.

Divre Hayamaim Bet/2nd Chronicles 2: 4 See, I build a Bayit to the Name of יהוה my Elohim, to dedicate it to Him, and to burn before Him sweet incense, and for the continual Lechem ha Panayim, and for the burnt offerings for shachrit and maariv, and on the Shabbats, and on the Rosh Chodashim, and on the solemn moadim of יהוה our Elohim. This is an ordinance le-olam-va-ed to Yisrael.

The Bread of the Faces was showing us Yahshua's face who is the continual and eternal Bread of Life, or face sent forth by the Father.

Mattityahu/Matthew 12:3-4

3 But He said to them, Have you not read what Dawid did, when he was hungry, and they that were with him;

4 How he entered into the Bayit of the Master יהוה, and did eat from the Lechem ha Panayim, which was not permitted in Torah for him to eat, neither for them who were with him, but only for the Kohanim.

Why didn't YHWH kill him? David wasn't a priest and thus he should have been killed. Because the showbread represented the Whole Wheat Unleavened Bread that the Son of David would give us to eat and thus represented the heart of YHWH for all Israel to eat that bread. David violated the letter of the Torah, but did accurately prophetically show YHWH's will in Yahshua. Luka/Luke 6:4 elaborates on this by stating that David distributed the showbread to others with him, exactly what Yahshua commands all true believers to do today. Eat the REAL unleavened bread, not a religious perversion, and then distribute that good nourishment to others.

Ivrim/Hebrews 9:2 For there was a Tent of Meeting made; the first area, where the menorah, and the shulchan, and the lechem of the shechinah was; which is called the Makom Kadosh.

Verse 2 calls the showbread the "Bread of Glory." Yahshua said He was the "Bread of Glory" with the Father before the world was even created. See Yochanan/John 17:4.

Ivrim/Hebrews 9:11 But Moshiach has now become a Kohen HaGadol of tov things to come, by a greater and more perfect Tent of Meeting, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this creation;

The showbread showed the people of Israel another heavenly temple where the TRUE BREAD was stored before YHWH's face, ready to come down in due season.

Hebrews/Ivrim 9:23 It was therefore necessary that the images of the heavenly things should be purified with these; although the heavenly objects are from a better sacrifice than these.

The heavenly objects include the Whole Wheat Unleavened Bread stored/kept in heaven before coming to earth. They are uncorrupted objects, as opposed to the vessels of the earthly Tabernacle, which are corrupted by mankind. The heavenly objects, including the Showbread are perfect due to the sacrificial glory that YHWH allows to shine on it.

Yochanan/John 5:46

46 For had you believed Moshe, you would have believed Me: for he wrote of Me.

47 But if you believe not his Ketuvim, how shall you believe My words?<sup>1</sup>

Really! WHERE did Moshe CLEARLY write about Yahshua other than Deuteronomy/Devarim 18:18? On the surface it seems in no other place! Have you ever wondered about this statement by Yahshua? The answer is that every time Moshe spoke and wrote about the Showbread/Lechem ha Panayim, he wrote about Yahshua! Get it? Yochanan/John 6: 32-59 makes this clear. Read this section very carefully. Yahshua, as the eternal whole wheat unleavened Bread, preceded the earthly bread of the priests, which pointed to the Bread stored in YHWH's heavenly pantry. Verse 59 says that Yahshua taught this in the synagogue. Is that what they teach in your church, or synagogue? Probably not, which is why it's a different Yahshua friends!

Phillip says in Yochanan/John 1:45 this Yahshua is the Bread Moshe wrote about in the Torah. 'We have found Him. We have been waiting on this Bread, that the prophets did write about.' This Scripture cross-references with Yochanan/John 5:46, where Yahshua confirms that the Showbread references are all about Him!

The showbread is the special bread in the Temple that the high priest ate in faith and obedience, in the hope of the true and life giving Bread one-day coming to the earth, so that all men might eat it for their salvation and never taste death.
